

Start College Now

Student Orientation and Information

Student Responsibilities

When you do Start College Now, you are an NWTC student.

- Know your class schedule
- Obtain any materials you need before the class starts (textbooks, tools, supplies, etc.)
- Check your NWTC email regularly
- Maintain at least a 2.0 GPA
- Reach out if you need help

Important Things to Know

- 8 week advantage
- If you want to withdraw from a class, you must submit a withdrawal form
- If you do not successfully complete your class, you may be expected to reimburse your school district
- Attendance and communication are very important
- There will be a balance posted on your account in the beginning of the semester; you can disregard this
- NWTC's academic calendar will not match your school's

Parent & Guardian Responsibilities

Help your child transition to college

- Support good attendance habits both in high school and college.
- Encourage your student to advocate for themselves.
- Comply with School District and NWTC policies on courses dropped after the start date or failed courses.
- Your child/our student must sign a release before we are able to share any enrollment information due to FERPA.

NWTC

We believe every student will succeed.

- Disability Services- Your school will not communicate that you have an IEP or need for accommodations. You must self-disclose this and set this up before class begins.
- Coaching- You can succeed, we will help!
- Starfish- Your connection to stay on track.
- Library- Research, Resources, Technology Help

Registering for classes

Modes of Instruction:

- In Person
- Online
- Blended
- Note that your high school calendar may not align with NWTC's for Semester Starts, Spring or Winter Break. Choose a course that matches best with your schedule.

8 Week Advantage

Tuition dollars start accumulating the first day of class.

See NWTC Withdrawal and Refund policies for more information.

100% refunds are only issued if changes are made before class start.
