2019-20 Default Clearance Letter

We have completed the initial review of your 2019-20 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The U.S. Department of Education has identified you as being in default on a student loan. Please refer to the details below for instructions on resolving your default situation. If you have any questions, contact a Financial Aid Advisor as soon as possible.

The U.S. Department of Education has indicated that you are in DEFAULT on a federal student loan. You are not eligible to receive any federal financial aid until your account has been resolved.

- Please contact the Department of Education at 1-800-621-3115 for options on how to resolve your default loan. To access your Federal Student Loan information, visit the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) at nslds.ed.gov. Your Federal FSA ID and password is required to access this website.
- When you have resolved the defaulted loan, please request a Default Clearance Letter be sent to you or the school. This letter must clearly state that your default has been cleared and you are again eligible for Title IV federal financial aid.
- If a payment arrangement is made, please have them send you a letter stating that a satisfactory payment arrangement has been made. This letter must clearly state that you're again eligible for Title IV federal financial aid.
