2019-20 Reached or Exceeds Pell Lifetime Eligibility

YOU HAVE REACHED YOUR LIFETIME PELL LIFETIME ELIGIBILITY LIMIT. YOU ARE NO LONGER ELIGIBLE FOR PELL GRANT FUNDING.

Pell Lifetime Eligibility Used (LEU) Effective July 1, 2013, Federal regulations limit students to a lifetime maximum Pell Grant of 12 semesters / six years or full time equivalent (600%) at any community college, vocational school or four year/bachelor program. Once you reach the 600% Pell LEU, you are ineligible for any additional Pell Grants, regardless of appeal response or completion of academic goals. Log into National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) using your FAFSA PIN and view your LEU, found on the Financial Aid Review page.

What this means for you: The six year limit is a LIFETIME limit, regardless of completion of your academic goals or Bachelor's degree. This regulation is in effect even if you have had an appeal approved after failure to meet academic progress, it supersedes any prior offer of aid/award, and the Department of Education allows for no appeal or exception.

The eligibility calculation includes all Pell grants you have received at any college or university in your lifetime.

I understand that I have reached my lifetime limit of Pell Grant funds and am no longer eligible to receive them.
