2020-21 Documentation of Parental Non-Support
(Parents Refuse to Provide Information)

All 5 steps must be completed and turned in together for consideration.

If your parents no longer provide any support for you and refuse to provide information for the FAFSA, you can only be considered for a Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan.

Depending on the answers you provide on your FAFSA, the Financial Aid Office will notify you of other documentation that you must submit based on your specific situation. Once we receive your FAFSA, the required documentation will be added to your my.NWTC To Do List.

STEP 1: Please answer the following questions.

Are your parents deceased? No Yes If yes, which parent is deceased? Mother Father Both

If not deceased, where is your biological father and biological mother?

Mother _____ Father _____

Did anyone claim you on their 2018 Federal Income Tax Return? No Yes

If yes, the person's name and relationship to you: _____

Who has provided support to you over the past year? _____

Who is currently supporting you? _____

What have been your living arrangements for the past year? _____

STEP 2: Submit a typed, signed personal statement.

Please briefly describe your situation and explain why your parent(s) is/are unwilling to provide their information on your FAFSA or any other relevant information pertaining to your parents.

STEP 3: Review and Sign- form will not be accepted without a signature. No electronic signatures accepted.

I certify that the information provided on this form, my written statement, and attached documents are true and accurate.

WARNING: If you purposely give false or misleading information on this worksheet, you may be fined, be sentenced to jail, or both.
