2020-21 Verification of Support for Child(ren)

You answered "YES" to the question below on the FAFSA, but you indicated on your verification worksheet you are still living with a parent.

51. Do you now have or will you have children who will receive more than half of their support from you between July 1, 2020 and June 30, 2021?

A student who has a child and who lives with their parent could still be considered Independent for financial aid purposes as long as they are the one providing over half of the financial support. If it is truly the parent that is still providing over half support for the household, then your FAFSA may need to be updated to accurately reflect that for this year (meaning the answer to the question above should have been NO, as you would still be dependent on your parents).

1. If you are stating that you provide more than half the financial support for your child, please provide the following information for each dependent:

	Name of Child	Age
2.
3.
4.

2. Who claimed YOU (the student) on the most recent tax return? _____

3. Please outline how you are specifically providing over half of the financial support for your child since you indicated that you are still living with a parent.

Household Bill	Name on Current Bill?	Paid by whom?	Amount?
Rent/Mortgage
Utilities (water, gas, etc)
Phone (landline/cellular)
Car Payment
Insurance (auto, health, home)
Food (estimate)
Miscellaneous

4. In the area below, please provide current income and resources you are receiving such as funds from wages, social security, child support, etc. This is income/resources received that are not reported on your FAFSA (which requests 2018 dollar amounts and we are requesting CURRENT dollar amounts) and will provide a clearer understanding of how you are supporting the household size reported on your verification worksheet.

Name of Income or Resource	Who received funds	Amount per Month

Certification and Signatures

By signing this worksheet certifies that all the information reported on it is complete and correct. The student must sign and date.

WARNING: If you purposely give false or misleading information on this worksheet, you may be fined, be sentenced to jail, or both.

Date

No electronic signatures accepted. Please watch your NWTC email for your next communication.

Failure to submit the requested information may prevent processing of your financial aid.

If you have answered the FAFSA question #51 incorrectly (listed at the beginning of this worksheet), return to your FAFSA to make a correction. Change the answer to "No," and answer the questions about your parent(s). Then you and a parent will have to sign and submit the corrected FAFSA.
