Unfinished Business/Follow Ups

- A reminder from campus security to update RAVE with your cell phone numbers for proper notifications. For directions to do this log onto our website and search RAVE Mobil Safety and follow the step by step instructions. Also, if you attend our Marinette or Niagara campuses and would like to be notified by these campuses as well, be sure to change your account settings.

New business

- Scholarship applications are out! Submit your application online between March 1st and May 1st to qualify. Search scholarships on the NWTC website home page.
- Our new District Ambassador is Kaitlyn Fitzgerald. Please congratulate her if you see her around campus!
- Please welcome Kathy Koehne who took a new position in Student Life!
- Pick up your new Service Opportunities list in Student Life. Also thank you again to all who volunteered at the CP building.

Announcements from Executive Board

- Bellin Health has paired up with NWTC's Student Involvement and Student Senate to bring currently enrolled students' FREE health care! There will be a nurse practitioner available Monday through Friday at 7:30 am-11:30 am. Please note that this is only a trial period to see whether this service should be permanently continued. The trial runs from Monday, March 19 until May 18, 2012. Walk-ins welcome.
- Green Bay's March for Babies will be on April 28 at Ashwaubenon Community Center. Registration for the 1.5 and 3 mile routes are at 8am and the walk starts at 9am. Visit marchforbabies.org for more information.
- Our next Food for Thought will be "Shattering the Silence: From Victim to Survivor", on March 21, 2012 at 11:30am in the Lecture Hall (SC132). Sarah Rice will be speaking about her experience and overcoming obstacles. Bring your I.D. cards for FREE lunch while you listen to Rice's motivational speech.
- Student Organization Annual Reports are due on Friday, March 23rd to Student Life. Annual reports are available in the Student Life Office.
- This year's Awards Banquet will be held on April 23rd at 5pm in the Radisson Hotel and Conference Center. You can pick up your tickets in Student Life for $15 if you would like to attend.
- Wisconsin Student Government meeting and Legislative Seminar was held February 19-21st in Madison. Student Senate representatives and advisors attended a speech by Lt. Governor Kleefisch, workshops, meetings, and spoke to our Representatives about increasing funding for the Technical Colleges throughout the state.
- Nominations for Governor, President, and Secretary will be accepted on March 19th and April 2nd. Elections are scheduled for April 16th. Newly elected Student Senate Representatives will start their term in the fall of 2012.
