Minutes of the November 21, 2011 Meeting

The meeting was called to order at 2:35 p.m.

Roll Call was taken

Minutes from November 7 were approved: as written motion by BPA and seconded by Ballroom Dance Club.

Unfinished Business/Follow Ups

- There were no updates from campus Security this week.

New business

- Bonnie Zima updated everyone about the end of semester book buy back. December 15 will only be open for NWTC with receipts. You can pick up a copy of your receipts in the Bookstore before December 15 if you lost yours. Book buyback is December 15, 16 and the 19th and 20th.
- Jessica Schmechel spoke about students wishing to get involved in politics publically at NWTC. One can stop into Campus Security to pick up the schools policy along with the forms. She also reminded students to understand that there are two sides to every issue and to be respectful.

Announcements from Executive Board

- Cap and Gowns are currently on sale in the book store. Prices after subsidizes are $8.75 per student and $9 for honor students.
- As of now, technical college IDs are not accepted. Governor Walker can either accept, reject or sit on the motion for now. Please get into contact with Student Senate if you do not have any other form of state issued ID (driver's license or ID) that can be used. The ACLU is organizing a potential lawsuit and has contacted Student Senate for students who do not have any other forms of ID.
- All organizations wishing to donate blood for the Blood Drive may still earn $5 for their club if they go during this month and bring back written/signed confirmation of donation.
- Like us on Facebook! Every student who likes "NWTC Student Senate" will earn $10 towards their club.
- Connecting Families will be held on December 1st at 5 pm in the Student Senate Dining Room (SC128). There will be dinner, presentation of the project, and there will be gas and grocery gift cards being raffled. Free for students and $5 for staff. Stop into Student Life to get your tickets and register.

Organization announcements

- Phi Theta Kappa announced they will be holding a bake sale on Tuesday, November 29 from 11am to 1pm in the Commons.
- December 5th will be the last Student Senate meeting of the semester. It will be held in the Executive Dining Room, come hungry!
