Unfinished Business/Follow Ups

- Campus Security: Tim McNulty informed the student body of our campuses continuation of a safe and secure college, then proceeded to open the floor to discussion for any questions or concerns.

New Business

- Fox Communities Credit Union – Port Lor came to speak about the Free Credit Report event that will be hosted in the commons on Tuesday, October 23rd, 2012. Aside from this event Lor also discussed employment, internship, and scholarship opportunities offered by the onsite Fox Communities Credit Union per academic year. While Michael J. Brown requested students to complete and submit the yellow Prosperity Center Survey.
- Delivery Modes – A variety of ways to learn are available at NWTC and Sue Zittlow took the opportunity to gain feedback based on student learning preferences by conducting a survey. Bring feedback and survey results to student involvement.
- Student Success Focus Group – Vickie Lock came to discuss the effectiveness of NWTC's courses, services, organizations, and support. Lock additionally distributed a questionnaire to collect a record of the various responses related to first impressions and recommendations to assist prospective students.
- A.C.E.S. Career Expo – Cindy Kothbauer came to encourage all to attend the Career Expo that will be held from 8:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. on November 6th, 2012 and located in the CB building's Four Plex area. At the Expo, one can get involved by attending nine different professional presentations and by participating in a mock interview session or a resume review session. Please dress professional, bring your resume, and sign up via e-mail (Careers@nwtc.edu). This event is free to all students and community members.
