1. The meeting was called to order at 2:32 p.m. on Monday, March 2nd, 2015 in room SC132.
2. Roll Call was taken.
3. NWTC Veterans Club made a motion to approve the minutes from 2/2/2015, NWTC DECA club seconded that motion.
4. Unfinished Business/Follow Ups
  - Campus Security – Mike from Security asked to remind all club members that smoking, chewing, and vaping must be done at the designated smoking shacks only. There has been some discussion on eliminating all smoking from campus except for in the parking lots. There is always parking available in back of Lot G, NWTC is planning on adding 800 parking stalls to the campus. In the gym facilities there have been thefts of money in the men's locker room the past two months.
5. New Business
  - NWTC Alumni Association – Lori Walters, Alumni Vice President, and Ashley Noel, Alumni Engagement Specialist informed us that all graduates are able to sign up for the Alumni Association. The Alumni bridges the gap between graduates and the college, determining the success of the graduates helps improve the success of the college. There is a new mentoring program, which pairs up Alumni members with a student of a respective program. There are different fundraising events that the Alumni has throughout the year, one of which is the silent auction during the Fall Scholarship Banquet. If there are any ideas on improving the college please contact Ashley Noel at (920) 498-5713 or Ashley.noel@nwtc.edu.
  - Career Fair – Dan Wicker informed that many past students have received jobs by going to the career fair. If employers like your resume and talking with you at the career fair, they will call you for a later interview. The career fair will be on Tuesday, March 10th, 2015 from 10:00 a.m – 2:00 p.m. in the commons.
  - Volunteer Center Opportunities – Rachel Scheffen informed that you can find different volunteering opportunities at www.volunteergb.org under the volunteer opportunities tab. Under that same tab there are also many different internship opportunities for non-profit companies.
  - Celebrate Diversity Week – Anna Moen announced that Celebrate Diversity Week will be held March 16th – March 20th. The different events during that week are posted on the bulletin boards.
  - No More Campaign – Joe Richter announced that the Supply chain Management club will be holding a fundraiser for fighting against domestic violence on March 7th at Replays Sports Bar and Grill in De Pere. The funds will be given to the Golden House, which is an organization that councils and shelters men, women, and children in Green Bay. For more information on the Golden House please visit: www.goldenhousegb.org
