

FAQ'S FOR INCARCERATED INDIVIDUALS & EDUCATIONAL DIRECTORS

NWTC RECEIVES MANY INQUIRIES FROM INDIVIDUALS WHO ARE INCARCERATED AND LOOKING TO GET INFORMATION ABOUT NWTC. WE HAVE COMPILED A LIST OF FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS TO HELP ANSWER COMMON QUESTIONS.

APPLYING TO BEGIN A PROGRAM AFTER YOU ARE RELEASED

If you are interested in applying to a program that begins after your release date, you do not need to submit any documentation prior to your release. Once you have been released, you will need to complete an online application for the program that you are interested in. If you have questions regarding the application process, please contact an Admissions Advisor at (920) 498-5444.

PRINT BASED CORRESPONDENCE COURSES

If you are interested in taking courses while incarcerated, view this packet for more information.

AUTHORIZATION TO RELEASE ACCOUNT INFORMATION

If you are incarcerated and would like to authorize a third-party individual the right to discuss your educational record and/or act on your behalf, an Authorization to Release Account Information must be filled out, signed and submitted to NWTC. This form will allow NWTC to work with any individual other than yourself regarding your account.

SCHOLARSHIPS

<https://www.nwtc.edu/about-nwtc/departments/foundation-alumni/scholarships>

NWTC's Foundation scholarship application is an online application. The application window is listed below:

- Fall Semester – March 1 - April 30
- Spring Semester – October 1 – November 1

STUDENT HOUSING

<https://www.nwtc.edu/student-experience/student-involvement/student-housing>

In order to live at The Orchards (on-campus housing), students must first complete an application. The application cost is $25 and is nonrefundable. If the student's monthly income is at least 3 times more than rent ($439 to $619) they can submit the application independently. If not, they will need a guarantor (co-signer). *Note that the cost of rent includes all utilities. The only potential, additional cost would be for onsite laundry

- If the student does not need a guarantor, they will need to complete a background check and a credit screening
- If the student needs a guarantor, the student will need to complete a background check and the guarantor will need to complete a credit screening

TRANSFER INFORMATION: CREDITS, CREDIT FOR PRIOR LEARNING, ETC.

If you are interested in transferring previously earned credits from a different institution, you will need to submit your official transcripts to transcripts@nwtc.edu upon your release to be evaluated by our Credit for Prior Learning Advisor.
