Daniel Adobe

1234 Windows Ave, Green Bay, WI 54301

920.498.6250 | Daniel.Adobe@mymail.nwtc.edu

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Develop technical documentation to support the use of software application
- Plan and conduct computer training sessions using appropriate training materials, assessment tools, technologies, and delivery methods
- Communicate effectively and work collaboratively within a software development team
- Incorporate best practices of the Agile software development methodology
- Perform entry-level systems analysis and design work to solve business problems
- Participate in the System Development Life Cycle tasks of an information system from an initial request through implementation using both traditional and object-oriented methodologies

EDUCATION

Northeast Wisconsin Technical College, Green Bay, WI

Associate Degree, Software Developer   May 2018

- Relevant Coursework: Website Coding, Scripting-JavaScript, Systems Analysis/Design, SQL-Advanced, Mobile Apps Development, IT-Training, Scripting-ASP.Net

EXPERIENCE

Software Developer, Intern   February 2017 – Present

Core Computer Solutions, Green Bay, WI

- Knowledge in behavioral synthesis and optimization
- Familiarity with compiler technology
- Debug, understand, and improve code
- Continued hands-on experience with relevant EDA tools
- Documented experience with Model Based Design and MATLAB, Simulink, and Stateflow

Customer Service Representative   March 2013 – January 2017

Reinhart Food Service, Green Bay, WI

- Communicated and worked directly with existing and new customers who have order status questions or those inquiring about product availability
- Translated tech-speak, billing and eCommerce jargon in a friendly, easy to understand manner
- Leveraged multiple sources of information to stay current on product features, technology changes and events that impact the customer
- Handled confidential customer information by following protocol